SCHOOL—S, FROM 10A

she will check with VLS Communications for more information.

During Board Member Reports, Chad Sterling updated the Board on the KASB Convention he attended. Michael Carpenter also reported on the KASB Convention. Andy Muir discussed which gym can be utilized for the Stockton recreation open gym, which is held on Sunday evenings. Jessy Maddy noted that the negotiation agreement has been signed. Maddy also attended the KASB Convention. No School Site Council meeting was held, so no report was given.

Grade school Dave Warner gave an update on the MTSS training for the teachers. He discussed the Tiger Huddle and staff and para evaluation updates with members and talked about how staff use their time during the early Wednesday dismissals. He is working on the curriculum and a student incentive program.

Superintendent and high school principal Dr. Angela McCollum reported on weekly leadership reflections, student recognition and activities, strategic goals, teaching and learning, facilities updates, maintenance and capital projects, the kitchen inspection, safety and compliance, and technology and district operations.

The Board then went into three executive sessions to discuss non-elected personnel, with Dr. McCollum and Warner in attendance. When they returned to the open meeting, there was no further discussion.

The Board then voted to accept Dr. Cole's resignation as the junior high scholars bowl sponsor for the 26-27 school year. They also voted to update Laura Moffet's high school assistant principal/student services coordinator contract for the 2026-2027 and 2027-2028 school years as presented.

Supplemental hirings were for Orianna Ratzliff as junior high girls basketball assistant coach for the 26-27 school year, and for Arron Orr as junior high boys basketball assistant coach for the 26-27 school year before the meeting was adjourned at 8:20 p.m.
