Shirley attended Oak Dale Country Grade School and graduated from Downs High School with the Class of 1944.

In September 1944, Shirley traveled to Washington D.C. and was employed at the War Information Office during World War II. After the war, she was employed at Kansas Senator Cappers office in the Senate Building.

When Shirley returned home, she worked as a secretary at Hardman Wholesale Lumber Company, Osborne.

On September 4, 1949, Shirley was united in marriage to Lyle McPeak at the Downs Methodist Church in a double-wedding ceremony with her sister, Ardis. Shirley and Lyle started their married life on the Cecil Boehner farm southwest of Glen Elder. In the spring of 1959, they moved to Lyle’s home place where they raised their family.

Shirley was a devoted wife and mother to three active boys. Shirley and Lyle were both passionate about attending their boys’ and then their grandchildren’s sporting events and activities. She also kept busy cooking, gardening, raising puppies, and running farm errands. Friends and neighbors were very important to Shirley, and she was always ready with a quick smile and a “Hi, how are you?”

Throughout the years, Christmas time was special for Shirley, and she spoiled each family member with gifts, including a special Hallmark ornament every year that was chosen just for them. Gifting made her heart happy.

Shirley was preceded in death by her loving husband, Lyle, who passed away in 2005. She was also preceded in death by sons, Steven Lyle and Barry Eugene; sisters, Betty Burns and Ardis Jones.

Teen killed in Mitchell County

BY MATT HEILMAN

MITCHELL COUNTY (KWCH) – A 17-year-old from Lincoln died from his injuries in a crash reported late Thursday morning on K-14 highway in Mitchell County. The two-vehicle crash happened a little before noon on a stretch of K-14 just south of V Road, the Kansas Highway Patrol (KHP) confirmed.

In the crash, the KHP reported that a 2003 Chrysler Town and Country minivan was traveling east on K-14 as a semi was traveling west.

“For unknown reasons, the minivan lost control and crossed the center line into the westbound lane,” the KHP report said. “The semi struck the minivan and entered the north ditch, and both vehicles caught on fire.”

The KHP identified the Lincoln teen killed in the crash as Austin Cearyn Jablonski. Jablonski was driving the minivan. The KHP report did not list any passengers in the vehicle. The semi driver was not seriously injured.
