away. "Probably lucky that there wasn't more damage than it had," he said.

Lady Liberty once again looks beautiful with her seven points on the crown. The seven points, or rays, symbolize both the seven continents and the seven seas. This imagery is meant to convey the universal nature of liberty and potential to reach all corners of the globe.

The statue as a whole, including the crown, is a powerful symbol of freedom and hope.

The Lions club thanks Lion Roy for his dedication to the club and his work on this project.

Fixing the damage required a ladder since the statue couldn't be brought down to ground-level.

Cawker City Methodist Church

Sunday July 13, 2025 our special was Steve Richardson playing "Sing Unto the Lord With I Will Sing of the Mercies".

Pastor Ian's message was "Closer Than You Think" with scripture from Gal 6:9.

Tragedy is all around us. Is God even there? Today was the story of Joseph. His brothers threw him in a pit, sold him into slavery as a young boy. He did nothing wrong. But God was building a bridge from the pit to the palace.

He was sold as a slave, imprisoned, but he never stopped doing good. He worked for God. He kept the faith, kept believing.

Joseph went to prison and on to become the leader of the most powerful nation in the world.

Stay the course, reap the harvest, don't give up. Buried is not the same as dead. We are just planted .

There are four things to do in the waiting room: be faithful in the little things; celebrate others; speak life over your situation; trust in God's timing.

When God doesn't speak—the blessings are coming.

Keller named to KU spring honor roll

Nearly 8,700 undergraduate students at the University of Kansas earned honor roll distinction for the spring 2025 semester.

Tammy Keller, Cawker City; School of Social Welfare was one of the students earning the honor.

The honor roll comprises undergraduates who meet requirements in the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences and in the schools of Architecture & Design, Business, Education & Human Sciences, Engineering, Health Professions, Journalism & Mass Communications, Music, Nursing, Pharmacy, Professional Studies and Social Welfare.

Honor roll criteria vary among the university's academic units. Students must complete a minimum number of credit hours to be considered for the honor roll.

Local students given Kansas Grain and Feed Scholarship

To assist in combatting the rising cost of higher education, Kansas Grain and Feed Association's (KGFA) scholarship program awarded nearly $30,000 in total to 19 of the state's graduating high school seniors for the 2025-26 academic year.

Addison Green-Russell, Downs, and Clay Guttery, Alton, were two of the scholarship recipients.

The scholarship committee, comprised of KGFA's membership, received more than 250 applications and granted the 19 awards based on merit and equitable geographic locations throughout the state.

"Our board of directors and scholarship committee understand the importance of introducing the next generation to our industry and association as early as possible," KGFA's president and CEO Ron Seeber said. "We are proud to support the education of our future workforce's emerging leaders and we wish them the best of luck in their studies."

KGFA annually awards

18 scholarships worth $1,500 and administers the Dub and Inez Johnson $500 memorial scholarship fund.

Students must be a graduating Kansas high school senior, a self-starter with excellent academic credentials, good school and community citizens and show a strong desire to continue their education. They also must be planning to attend any Kansas four-year university, community college or technical school.

KGFA has assisted countless students pursue their education since 1976.
