

Tips from the Easter Bunny

- 1) Don't put all of your eggs in one basket.
- 2) There's no such thing as too much candy.
- 3) Some body parts should be floppy.
- 4) An Easter bonnet can tame the wildest hare.
- 5) The grass is always greener in someone else's basket.
- 6) Let happy thoughts multiply like rabbits.
- 7) Everyone needs a friend who is all ears.
- 8) Everyone is entitled to a bad hare day.
- 9) Keep your paws off other people's jellybeans.

Q. Why did the Easter egg hide?

A. Cause it was a little chicken!

Card of Thanks

The family of JoAnne Balthazor would like to extend our sincere thanks for all the kindness given to JoAnne during her illness. We would also like to thank all the neighbors, relatives & friends who offered sympathy to us at the death of our mother and grandmother.

Your kindness will always be remembered.

ARBOR DAY PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, in 1872, J. Sterling Morton proposed to the Nebraska Board of Agriculture that a special day be set aside for the planting of trees, and

WHEREAS, this holiday called Arbor Day, was first observed with the planting of more than a million trees in Nebraska and Arbor Day is now observed throughout the nation and the world, and

WHEREAS, trees reduce the erosion of our precious topsoil by wind and water, cut heating and cooling cost, moderate the temperature, clean the air, produce oxygen and provide habitat for wildlife, and

WHEREAS, trees are a renewable resource giving us paper, wood for our homes, fuel for our fires and countless other wood products, and

WHEREAS, trees in our city increase property values, enhance the economic vitality of business areas, and beautify our community, and

WHEREAS, trees, wherever they are planted, are a source of joy and spiritual renewal, and

WHEREAS, the CITY OF CLYDE has been recognized as a Tree City USA by the National Arbor Day Foundation and desires to continue its tree-planting practices

NOW THEREFORE, I, RUSTEN SIKES, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF CLYDE, KANSAS, do hereby proclaim April 25th, 2025 as

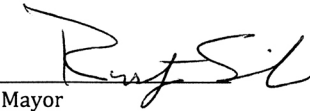

ARBOR DAY

In the City of Clyde and urge all citizens to celebrate Arbor Day and to support efforts to protect our trees and woodlands, and

FURTHER, I urge all citizens to plant trees to gladden the heart and promote the well-being of this and future generations.

DATED THIS 2nd day of April, 2025
