Satanta High School Celebrates SCCC Graduates, CNA Licenses, and CTE Pathway Excellence

Satanta High School proudly announces the career-ready accomplishments of its students in vocational education, career and technical training, and industry certification programs.

Among the 2025 graduating class, 10 of 19 seniors have earned the distinction of Career and Technical Education (CTE) Pathway Completers, a designation recognized by the Kansas State Department of Education as a benchmark of college and career preparedness. Also noted here are Pathway Concentrators, students who made significant progress toward becoming a Completer.

“These students have taken on real-world challenges and walked away with credentials that prove their readiness,” said Crystal Naylor, Satanta science teacher and CTE educator. “Whether they’re heading into welding, agriculture, healthcare, or business, they are prepared to make an immediate impact.”

- CTE Pathway Awards:
- Pathway Completers:*
- Diversified Agriculture: Vladimir Alvarado, Andrea Gutierrez, Kassady Lazar, Morgan Pen-dergraft, Aaron Serrano, and Asher Creeden
  - Business Finance: Eva Loewen
  - Business Marketing: Marlen Perez Munguia
  - Family & Community Services: Yahaira Puerto
  - Health Sciences: Jaretny Serrano
- Pathway Concentrators:*
- RJ Banuelos – Manufacturing
  - Edwardo Mata – Construction & Design
  - Tony Moreno – Business Finance
  - Isaiah Manriquez – Business Finance
  - Colton Wade – Diversified Agriculture
  - Yahaira Puerto – Health Sciences

Kansas defines CTE Pathway Completion as the successful completion of a sequence of courses within an approved career pathway. Students who earn this designation graduate with both academic and technical skill proficiencies that align with workforce demands.

In addition to these distinctions, a number of Satanta High School Students have earned vocational certifications from Seward County Community College.

SCCC Graduates:

- Alex Martinez (Class of 2026) – Welding Certificate A, B
- Roman Salazar (Class of 2026) – Welding Certificate A, B
- Hunter Waggoner – Commercial Driver’s License (CDL)

Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) Licenses:

- Yahaira Puerto
- Jaretny Serrano

Satanta High School remains committed to expanding opportunities in skilled trades, health-care, agriculture, and business—ensuring students leave prepared to lead in the workforce or pursue further education.
