lake hall for pizza, the awards ceremony, and more banter.
Marion bait shop Rally Time Jigs — owned by dock regular Lane Peterson — sponsored the tournament, donating lure boxes and gift certificates for raffle and prize winners.
Suggestions for what the money raised from the raffle should be used for included a second heated dock and a loft above the dock so anglers could sleep there.

Marty Roberts caught the smallest crappie, 6¼ inches long.
J.R. Morris caught the first fish of the day.
Each received $50 and a handful of free lures from Rally Time.
The biggest crappie came in at 12¼ inches and was caught by Ricky Rosenbaum.
Tyler Redford caught the most crappie with 23. The fish had a cumulative length of 186¼ inches.

Rosenbaum and Redford each received $75 and a $25 Rally Time gift certificate.
"It went very well," Hett said. "It wasn't the most fish ever caught, but it was up there."
Participants agreed.
"Good food, good fishing, good company — you can't go wrong," Bialek said.
