

Items on this page are obtained from inspection of public records, are supplied by public agencies as a matter of routine, or are gathered by monitoring of public radio frequencies. Involved parties sometimes request that embarrassing items be excluded. However, no public agency is legally allowed to withhold information that is part of the public record, and to be fair to all, the newspaper never excludes any item unless it is legally removed from the public record by legislation or court action.

ACCIDENTS REPORTED

These accident reports were released this past week by law enforcement agencies:

SHERIFF

US-56/77 north of 300th Rd.

Travis Q. Bishop, 45, Hutchinson, hit a deer at 6:14 a.m. May 7 with his 2016 Chevrolet Silverado, according to the only accident or offense report released Friday by the sheriff's department.

Bishop's truck sustained damage characterized as minor to its left front.

CIVIL DIVISION CASES

This information was filed last week in civil division of district court. If no address is listed, no address was available.

Emily and Scott Dunning were ordered May 7 to pay Hospital District No. 1 $1,953 plus costs and interest for unpaid medical bills.

COUNTY JAIL ARRESTS AND BOOKINGS

This roster was obtained Tuesday from the jail's inmate listing system.

NEW ARRESTS

Jaden A. Cutsinger, 29, Hutchinson, jailed Friday for 48 hours on court orders. Previously jailed April 11 to 13 and May 2 to 4 on court orders and July 5 to 7, 2020, on suspicion of aggravated child endangerment, interfering with law enforcement, driving without a valid license and under the influence of alcohol, transporting an open container of alcohol, failing to surrender registration as required, and failing to have vehicle liability insurance.

Kayla S. Gosnell, 25, Lost Springs, jailed Thursday for allegedly violating her probation twice. Held in lieu of posting a $5,000 bond. Previously jailed eight times for a total of all or part of 32 days between May 12, 2021, and Nov. 3, 2023. Previous jailings were on suspicion of possessing marijuana, a controlled substance, and drug paraphernalia; for failing to appear in court; for contempt of court twice; for allegedly violating her probation twice; and on court orders three times.

Daniel J. Henry, 34, Marion, jailed for nine hours May 14 for twice failing to appear in court. Then, 10 hours after his release on his own recognizance, arrested by Marion police on suspicion of domestic battery, child endangerment, and criminal damage to property. Released 19 hours later after posting a $1,500 bond.

Calvin J. Hinz, 41, Lincolnville, jailed May 13 for allegedly violating his probation. Released 26 hours later after posting a $1,000 bond. Previously jailed Oct. 30 to Nov. 1 on suspicion of domestic battery and for failing to appear in court; Oct. 21 on suspicion of vehicle burglary; and Aug. 11, 2021, on suspicion of two counts of theft.

Karon D. Hudson, 30, Hillsboro, arrested Tuesday by Hillsboro police on an unspecified warrant. Held in lieu of posting a $5,000 bond.

Tommy E. McBride, 44, Newton, jailed Thursday for allegedly violating his probation. Held in lieu of posting a $5,000 bond. Previously jailed Nov. 3 to 5, 2022, on suspicion of distributing stimulants and possessing marijuana and drug paraphernalia.

Melissia R. Merunka, 48, Peabody, jailed Thursday for Kansas Department of Corrections after being arrested by U.S. marshals and state troopers on unspecified charges. Bond not set.

Joshua A. Olsen, 34, Hillsboro, arrested Sunday by a sheriff's deputy on suspicion of aggravated battery and domestic battery. Bond not set.

Samantha N. Schmidt, 39, Goessel, arrested Monday by a sheriff's deputy on suspicion of burglary and theft. Released an hour later after posting a $5,000 bond. Previously jailed June 19 to 26 on court orders and Sept. 9 to 11, 2023, on suspicion of burglary and possession of marijuana and drug paraphernalia.

Michael W. Sigel, 53, Marion, jailed May 12 on court orders. Released Thursday, continuing a pattern of short jailings that began Feb. 10.

Sarah V. Smith, 46, Marion, arrested Saturday by Marion police on suspicion of recklessly fleeing police. Held in lieu of posting a $5,000 bond. Previously jailed Feb. 26 and 27, 2023, on suspicion of violating an anti-stalking order and Dec. 13 and 14, 2022, on suspicion of possessing stimulants, displaying another vehicle's license plate, and failing to have vehicular liability insurance.

Dusty L. Trusdale, 40, Peabody, jailed Thursday for Kansas Department of Corrections after being arrested by U.S. marshals and state troopers on unspecified charges. Bond not set.

Adam M. Wilson, 37, Peabody, jailed Monday for Kansas Department of Corrections on unspecified charges. Bond not set. Previously jailed March 27 to 31 for allegedly violating his parole; Feb. 20, 2024, for failing to appear in court twice; and Feb. 25 to 28, 2022, again for allegedly violating his parole and on two counts of aggravated failure to appear in court.

FROM PREVIOUS WEEKS

Darris L. Brown, 41, Hillsboro, jailed since March 3.

Dakota L. Dillashaw, 30, Marion, since Sept. 6.

Matthew W. Dudte, 52, Canton, Dec. 19, 2023.

Ernest L. Edens, 50, no hometown listed, May 20, 2024.

Paul A. Huddleston, 27, Marion, March 29.

Richard T. Litton, 39, Peabody, Oct. 20.

James R. McColl, 51, Lehigh, Jan. 19.

Bell-One' S. Meyer, 30, Wichita, April 18.

Eric C. Pettit, 42, Galva, Feb. 14.

Bane L. Spurlin, 21, Hillsboro, March 28.

Brandon S. Toon, 40, Florence, Nov. 13.

Athen J. Turner, 24, Loveland, Colorado, Jan. 31.

CRIMINAL DIVISION CASES

This information was filed last week in criminal division of district court. If no address is listed, no address was available on court records or from jail booking records.

Chad D. Amack formally was charged Thursday with domestic battery and criminal damage to property.

William P. Castleberry, 47, Burns, pleaded no contest to disorderly conduct April 30 and was fined $500.

Matthew L. Finch, 41, Salina, was sentenced May 5 to a year's community corrections and ordered to pay $313 for unlawful possession of a controlled substance.

DEEDS RECORDED

These deeds were reported last week as recorded by the register of deeds. Property addresses come from appraisal records. Agricultural property descriptions use common road references derived from appraisal records.

Martin D. and Karen J. Dalke, trustees, to Tyler E. and Jenna E. Dickerson, trustee deed to 929 170th Rd. along with 9.81 acres.

Karen M. and Melanie A. Druse to Karen M. and Matthew L. Druse, 809 E. Weldon St., Marion.

Robert and Rose Mary Neuwirth Trust to Diana L. Stanfill, trustee deed to 116.99 acres south of 330th Rd. between Quail Creek and Remington Rds., and 78.5 acres southeast of 330th and Sunflower Rds.

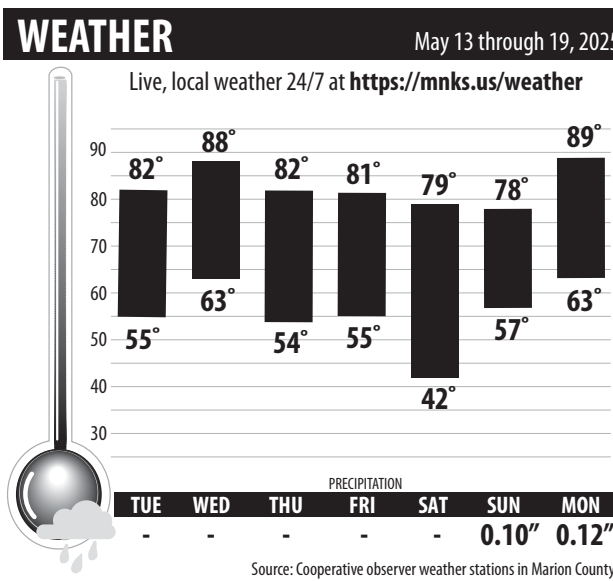

Joseph and Jennifer Ford to Julia Horn, 2406 190th Rd. along with 11 acres.

Oscar E. Morales-Gutierrez to Jennifer L. Cinotto, quitclaim deed to 1192 150th Rd.

Meysing Homes LLC to Dustin Michael and Susan Marie Woodford, a lot east of Coble St. between Kellison and Denver Sts., Marion.

Noshaba Ali and Ali Instisar to John E. and Deborah Moore, 1926 275th Rd.

For the Record

Annette R. King to Benjamin C. Beisel, 206 S. Main St., Hillsboro.

EMERGENCY DISPATCHES

Broadcasts about these fire and ambulance calls were monitored this past week by the newspaper:

MAY 13

7:40 a.m. — Peabody, Marion, and Florence firefighters spent an hour extinguishing a garage fire reportedly started by gasoline in a lawn mower in the 200 block of N. Maple St. in Peabody. Hillsboro ambulance stood by in case of injuries.

8:49 a.m. — Hillsboro ambulance shuttled an air ambulance's flight crew from Hillsboro's airport to Hillsboro Community Hospital and back.

10:09 a.m. — A fire alarm at a farmhouse on Chisholm Trail Rd. north of 130th Rd. was determined by Goessel firefighters to be a false alarm.

1:17 p.m. — A 72-year-old man with dementia and experiencing weakness after stumbling at Parkside Homes in Hillsboro was taken to HCH by Hillsboro ambulance.

2:39 p.m. — Hillsboro ambulance transferred an unspecified patient from HCH to Kansas Heart Hospital, Wichita. The ambulance returned to Hillsboro at 5:41 p.m. Because Marion ambulance was not fully staffed at the time, Tampa ambulance stood by until 4:20 p.m. in Hillsboro in case of additional calls.

MAY 14

5:27 a.m. — A 90-year-old woman having trouble breathing at a farmhouse near 190th and Kanza Rds. was taken to NMC Health, formerly Newton Medical Center, by Hillsboro ambulance. The ambulance returned to Hillsboro at 7:57 p.m.

8:49 a.m. — Marion ambulance, Marion firefighters, and a LifeSafe helicopter visited Marion Elementary School for nearly 2½ hours for a school event.

2:34 p.m. — A quarter-acre grass fire reportedly started by shop equipment near 270th and Clover Rds. and threatening a nearby structure was contained within 50 minutes and extinguished 30 minutes after that by Lincolnville and Marion firefighters.

7:37 p.m. — A 16-year-old boy drifting in and out of consciousness after being hit in the neck by a baseball at the Marion ball field was taken to St. Luke Hospital, Marion, by Marion ambulance.

8:59 p.m. — Remaining at St. Luke, Marion ambulance transferred an unspecified patient from there to the pediatric section of Wesley Medical Center, Wichita. The ambulance returned to Marion around midnight.

THURSDAY

2:28 a.m. — A 58-year-old man complaining of foot pain at a camper trailer in the 600 block of Cemetery Ln. in Burns was taken by Marion ambulance to Susan B. Allen Hospital, El Dorado. Attendants asked for sheriff's deputies to respond as well. The ambulance returned to Marion at 5:27 a.m.

10:09 a.m. — An 82-year-old man having trouble breathing at Salem Home in Hillsboro was transferred by Hillsboro ambulance to HCH.

11:51 a.m. — At an off-duty ambulance attendant's request, Tampa ambulance was sent to join him at a farm near 340th and Pawnee Rds. and take an undescribed patient to Abilene Memorial Hospital. The ambulance returned to Tampa at 2:23 p.m.

12:01 p.m. — Hillsboro ambulance informed dispatchers that it would be transferring an appendicitis patient from HCH to NMC Health. The ambulance returned to Hillsboro at 2:04 p.m.

1:16 p.m. — An 80-year-old man who fainted outside the Branding Iron restaurant in Florence declined to be taken to a hospital by Marion ambulance.

5:41 p.m. — Although Hillsboro ambulance was dispatched, a 71-year-old woman was transferred by Marion ambulance from HCH to Kansas Heart Hospital. The ambulance returned to Marion at 9:09 p.m.

10:38 p.m. — Although Marion ambulance was dispatched, a 57-year-old woman with excess sodium in her blood was transferred by Hillsboro ambulance from St. Luke to Wesley. The ambulance returned to Hillsboro at 1:32 a.m.

FRIDAY

9:43 a.m. — Marion ambulance attendants searched the house and grounds but could find no patient after being dispatched for a medical alarm at a house near US-56 and Nighthawk Rd.

11:12 a.m. — Although the call initially went to Marion ambulance, a second alarm at the same location was determined by Hillsboro ambulance attendants to have been accidentally triggered by a person riding on a mower.

2 p.m. — Peabody firefighters and Marion, Hillsboro, and a backup ambulance all paid tribute at a funeral in Peabody for retired paramedic Larry Larsen.

11:09 p.m. — Hillsboro ambulance attendants helped lift a patient at Parkside Homes.

SATURDAY

4:57 p.m. — An 88-year-old man with a broken hip was transferred by Hillsboro ambulance from HCH to Ascension Via Christi St. Francis Hospital, Wichita. The ambulance returned to Hillsboro at 7:17 p.m.

8:03 p.m. — A 22-year-old man who fell and hurt his leg after his dog ran into him near US-56 and Bison Rd. was taken to HCH by Hillsboro ambulance.

11:46 p.m. — A woman her hurt her eye at a farmhouse near 290th and Timber Rds. declined to be taken to a hospital by Tampa ambulance.

SUNDAY

6:27 p.m. — Pea-size hail was reported at Lincolnville.

6:32 p.m. — Quarter-size hail was reported at Ramona.

6:34 p.m. — Marble to quarter-size hail was reported at Herington.

MONDAY

5:27 a.m. — A 75-year-old man was transferred by Hillsboro ambulance from Bethesda Home, Goessel, to NMC Health. The ambulance returned to Hillsboro at 6:57 a.m.

6:04 a.m. — With Hillsboro ambulance occupied, Marion ambulance was sent to the 200 block of Buller St. in Goessel for a 75-year-old man with back pain after falling several days earlier. He was taken to Dole Veterans Affairs Hospital, Wichita. The ambulance returned to Marion at 9 a.m. Goessel first responders were paged but did not answer.

9:10 a.m. — An 80-year-old who briefly became unresponsive while visiting Bethesda Home declined to be taken to a hospital by Hillsboro ambulance.

4:35 p.m. — A 19-year-old woman with a history of heart problems and her hands turning blue at Salem Home in Hillsboro was taken to NMC Health by Hillsboro ambulance. The ambulance returned to Hillsboro at 6:32 p.m.

6:16 p.m. — Pea-size hail was reported at Lincolnville.

POLICE ACTIVITY REPORTS

Law enforcement agencies provided these reports of their activities this past week. Routine activities such as patrols, inspections, training, report-writing, and assistance to other agencies are excluded. Dates may reflect starting or ending dates of officers' shifts rather than actual dates of occurrence.

HILLSBORO

May 12 — A driver was warned for having no taillights at B and Ash Sts. Police talked to a resident about a civil issue.

May 13 — Police joined in pursuit of a murder and bank robbery suspect west on US-56 and north on I-135. A driver was warned for having no taillights at Ash and D Sts. Police met with residents about a parking complaint and about a civil issue.

May 14 — A dog was reported loose near 3rd, Jefferson, and Madison Sts. An alarm at Dollar General accidentally was activated by a truck driver. A driver was warned for making a J-turn in the 100 block of W. Grand Ave. Police checked on a resident's welfare and talked to a resident about surveillance cameras at a business.

Thursday — A loose dog was picked up at Tabor College and its owner located. A window screen found on the ground in the 300 block of N. Lincoln St. had been removed by a juvenile. Police checked on a suspicious vehicle at Hillsboro Senior Center and investigated a noise complaint in the 400 block of N. Ash St.

Friday — Police talked to residents about a loose dog and about an ongoing civil issue.

Saturday — A driver was warned for speeding at Ash and 2nd Sts. A car reportedly parked improperly at Tabor College was not found. Police talked to a resident about standing by during a civil matter.

Sunday — Police talked to a resident about concerns involving another person.

MARION

May 12 — Police dealt with an out-of-control juvenile at Marion County Special Education Cooperative. A driver was warned for speeding near US-56 and Industrial St.

May 13 — Two juveniles fighting near 2nd and Main Sts. were referred to the county attorney for possible charges; no offense report was released. No problems were found in checking on an alarm at the city shop. A person walking in the road near Main and Santa Fe Sts. was arrested on out-of-county warrants; however, no clearly corresponding arrest is listed on the county jail log.

May 14 — Daniel J. Henry, 34, Marion, was arrested for suspicion of domestic battery, criminal damage to property, and child endangerment after police investigated a disturbance near Country Inn motel 10 hours after Henry was released from jail on his own recognizance for failing to appear in court. No offense report has yet been released in the case. No problems were found in checking on the welfare of a resident of Sunrise Townhomes. Police spoke to two people about possible harassment.

Thursday — A dog reportedly loose in the 400 block of N. 2nd St. was not found. No problems were found with a suspicious package in the 600 block of S. Lincoln St. or in checking on a resident of the 300 block of N. Freeborn St. Drivers were warned for speeding on US-56 near Industrial St. and near Timber Rd. and for having a defective license plate light on US-56 near Cedar St.

Friday — Sarah V. Smith, 46, Marion, allegedly ran a stop sign at Main and Roosevelt Sts. and was arrested on suspicion of fleeing police after she eventually was stopped a little more than a mile away in the 100 block of Jefferson St. No offense report has yet been filed in the case. Other drivers were warned for running a stop sign at Main and 4th Sts. and for having defective tag lights near Main and 5th Sts., near Main and Elm Sts., and near Cedar and Lawrence Sts. Inmates involved in a fight at the county jail were separated before police arrived.

Saturday — A fox reported in the 500 block of N. Coble St. was not found. Property found in the 1000 block of E. Main St. was returned to its owner. Police intervened in a civil matter in the 300 block of N. 3rd St.

Sunday — A downed power line in the 1100 block of E. Main St. was reported to city electric workers. A driver was warned for running a stop sign at Main St. and Eastmoor Dr.

Business directory

ADVERTISING

Directories increase top-of-mind awareness so customers think of you when they need your services

Marion County RECORD

EDUCATION

Stay in the Hills and save money by taking fully transferrable gen eds!

Butler
Community College

MARION | COUNCIL GROVE
flnthills@butlercc.edu
316.323.6039
ButlerCC.edu

AGRICULTURAL

BURDICK
MEAT MARKET and LOCKER

- Retail meats, jerky, sticks for sale
- Slaughtering cattle, sheep, hogs, goats Wednesdays
- Cost per pound hanging
- Call Dan at (785) 983-4388 for emergency slaughtering.

8 to noon, 1 to 5 weekdays
8 to 11 Saturday mornings
(785) 983-4818

FUNERAL

YM

Yazel - Megli
FUNERAL HOME
MARION CHAPEL

Brad Chapel
Funeral director
(620) 382-2112
205 Elm St., Marion

HOME

CENTRAL AG
Air

CROP & PASTURE SPRAYING

Matt Orth
OWNER/PILOT

THRUSH78@YAHOO.COM
CELL (785) 844-0181

1835 UPLAND RD.
MARION

HOME

CKS
Residential Roofing Specialist

Free estimates

Kirt Coslett
(316) 772-7355, Elmdale
RR# 23-006091

AUTOMOTIVE

✓ Front-end work
✓ Brakes
✓ Alignments

THOMSON
Brake & Alignment

2104 W. 6th Ave., Emporia
(620) 342-3823

Flaming's Inc.

PLUMBING • HEATING & AIR CONDITIONING

113 S. 2nd St., Marion
(620) 382-2181
fax (620) 382-2196

VETERINARY

Animal Health Center of Marion County

119 S. Coble St., Marion
(620) 382-8800

Jessica Gernhard, DVM
Rebecca Erwin, DVM

Large and small animal care indoor boarding • grooming • pet food

Make a SPLASH

statewide or regionally

Place your display, classified, or online advertising in more than 140 newspapers, reaching more than 1 million readers, with just one call and one bill. Or target just portions of the state.

(620) 382-2165 or advertising@marionrecord.com

KELSEY'S PAINTING SERVICES

- Interior/exterior painting
- Deck/fence staining
- Power washing
- Insured

FREE ESTIMATES
(316) 706-7329
408 Pawnee Rd., Peabody, KS
Richard W. Kelsey, Owner
RWKelsey2@gmail.com

ROOFING SERVICES UNLIMITED

Local • Residential Commercial
Licensed • Insured

(800) 588-2677
(316) 284-9900

Ask your insurance agent for their contractor recommendation!
KS REG #13-115018

In business since 1972

TONY'S PLUMBING

Open sewer, residential plumbing, plumbing repairs

Jason L. Schaifers
309 S. Coble St., Marion
(253) 579-6712