~THANK YOU~

I feel so greatly blessed by the outpouring of support and love that has been shown by the community after Dermot's passing. I knew he was liked and respected, but this has been heart rending and beautiful. I have had relatives, longtime friends, people from his routes, former employers, current employers and so many more who have stepped up and been there for me. I could write 1000 thank you notes and still never be able to express what that means to me and to our extended family!

I don't know how I would have managed those days in the hospital without Dermot's family. Extra special thanks go to Ray Easter for lending us strength from the very beginning of the hospital stay, and to Jamie Derr and Danelle Peters for all of their amazing support and help with everything you could possibly imagine.

To Irvin and Kevin Schuckman, Ray Easter, James Webs, Jeff Renz, and Ruben Schuckman I cannot ever express how much it meant to me that you were the ones to carry him to his final resting place.

To our children Heather and Charles Booth, Michael Resseguie, James Bunting and Tayci Helm, please know he loved you, and thank you for helping to keep me sane. Most of all thank you for giving us the gift we cherish more than any other... Our grandchildren and great grandchildren.

To the people he worked with at the USPS and Schaffer E-Z Mart, he cared about each one of you in a unique way and really enjoyed working there. Thank you all for treating me like one of the family.

This road ahead for me will be treacherous, but with the outpouring of support I have seen, I'm beginning to believe I might make it. I'm not sure how, but at least I see it as a possibility. This note of thanks is long overdue, but it's been a difficult thing for me; once I see it printed in the paper, it makes it just that much more real.

With heartfelt thanks,
Suzanne Randa
