OBITUARY

Max Dannenberg

Max Arden Dannenberg of Gaylord, Kansas passed away in his home on May 24, 2025, at the age of 84. Max was born on August 9, 1940, to Albert Henry and Magdalene Elizabeth (Pilcher) Dannenberg in Portis, Kansas. He was the youngest of three children and grew up on the family farm south of Gaylord. He was baptized and confirmed in faith at Christ Lutheran Church of Gaylord and graduated from Gaylord High School in 1958. Shortly after graduation, he joined the Army National Guard. On October 25, 1959, Max married Helen Beckmann and they spent 59 years together. They were blessed with three children: Maurice, Mark, and Marsha. Max was a lifelong resident of the Gaylord community and spent his life doing what he loved, farming. He was dedicated, hard-working, and being outside on the farm or taking care of his cattle brought him great joy. He was always happy to have his grandchildren or nieces and nephews come out to the farm and ride along in the combine for harvest. Max was active in his church at St. John Lutheran Athol, serving on the church counsel and singing in the men's choir. He and Helen also enjoyed many years of square dancing with friends. Max loved being outside; fishing, hunting, and target practice with his grandsons, tinkering in his shop, smoking his meats and cheeses - and so many years "Macky" spent pitching and playing softball for the local men's teams. Max never knew a stranger. He could talk to anyone and always had a story. He was generous and could often be found distributing a block of his smoked cheese or a bag of sweet corn. He loved traveling to visit his children and grandchildren, attend their sporting events, and never missed a party. Max was preceded in death by his parents, his brother Lawrence ("Pete") Dannenberg, and his wife Helen. He is survived by his children; Maurice (Inci) Dannenberg of Wildwood, MO, Mark (Jocelyn) Dannenberg of Littleton, CO, Marsha (Tony) Fangman of Overland Park, KS, his grandchildren; Kenan (Ash-ton) Dannenberg, Erek (Molly) Dannenberg, De-vran (Erin) Dannenberg, Ellie, Jack, Sam, and Logan Fangman, as well as his sister, Betty Kirchhoff of Gaylord and numerous in-laws, nieces, and nephews. Celebration of life services will be held at 10:30AM Saturday June 7, 2025 at the St. John Lutheran Church in Athol, KS. The family has requested memorial contributions be made to the St. John Lutheran Church and can be sent in care of the mortuary. Arrangements have been entrusted to the Rentschler Family Mortuaries of Smith Center (Published in the Smith County Pioneer Thursday, June 12, 2025.) Pd. obit
