Thank You All!

Grant Haley's family would like to thank you for your prayers, kindness, and love as they continue to lift and comfort our family through Grant's 15 year journey and passing. Physical, OT, and Speech therapists were tremendous help for Grant to "Rock his Abilities". He was able to tell his story of how his life changed after his brain injury in his own words one letter at a time.

Grant noted (having played baseball) that he found himself in a "Pickle", appreciated all the care he received, and concluded with encouraging people to enter any medical field to help others who need care.
