Youth Babysitting Clinic Offers Training for Future Caregivers

By Michelle Broxterman
Family and Child Development Extension Agent,
Wildcat
Extension District

Do you know a responsible youth interested in becoming a babysitter? The K-State Research and Extension – Wildcat District is hosting a Babysitting Clinic designed for youth ages 10 and up, providing them with the skills and confidence to care for young children.

The clinic will take place on Wednesday, June 5, 2025, from 9:00 a.m. to Noon at the First National Bank 4-H Learning Center, located at 10392 Jade Road, Fredonia, Kansas, at the Old Iron Days Grounds.

Participants will learn:

- The responsibilities of a babysitter
- Basic first aid and CPR
- Child development and safe infant care
- Food safety, nutrition, and wellness

- Fun and engaging activities for children

The cost is just $5.00, space is limited to 20 participants, so early registration is encouraged. Register by May 16 by visiting bit.ly/WilsonBabysitting or calling the Wilson County Extension Office at (620) 378-2167.

For more information, contact Michelle Broxterman, Family and Child Development Agent, at (620) 724-8233 or mbroxterman@ksu.edu.

Give your child the tools to become a capable, confident babysitter—register today!
