progress being made on the bridge. The handrail on the west side looks good and the road bed part of the bridge looks good for that side. Will we see construction move along a little faster now? I know we all certainly hope so.

Answer: William Howard Taft is notorious for being one of the more portly presidents in history, so it should come as no surprise that he consumed a substantial breakfast each morning. Taft began each day with a doctor-prescribed workout with a personal trainer in his private quarters, which he followed with breakfast at precisely 8:30 a.m. His usual meal consisted of a 12-ounce steak, plenty of buttered toast, and coffee loaded with large amounts of cream and sugar. You'd never find eggs on Taft's plate, however, as they were one of the few foods he despised. As Taft got older, he eventually cut back to just a 6-ounce serving of steak for breakfast

I don't like to be known as a grumpy old woman, but people zipping around town on those side-by-side four wheelers need to be reminded of the speed limits here in town.

I was taught that all vehicles, 2-wheeled, 3-wheeled, 4- wheeled, etc., were to follow the set rules is of the road. Many cars and pickups are just as bad. I don't know, maybe I'm wrong, but zipping around at the speeds in which many drive them is way too fast on the streets of town. If they don't have speedometers on them they should. But I guess, in all honesty, that will not slow them down. It seems they think they are above the law.

If you have children, tell them to slow down and look twice before crossing a road or going thru an intersection. This simple reminder could save a will ride clouds in the sky and play our harps? Sadly, some younger people have embraced the idea that you die, and that's it. You cease to exist. On the other extreme, we now have "Doggy Heavens" and "Cat Heavens," unless you dislike cats and think that they went to the other place. If anything, I think that Americans and people from other countries are more inclined to believe less in Heaven and Hell than used to be the case.

The Apostle John wrote, "1 Then I saw 'a new heaven and a new earth,' for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. 2 I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God,
