Boys beat SCC 50-21

By Kathe Hamman
The Yates Center High School Wildcats completed the sweep Friday in front of a packed house as the Wildcats defeated Southern Coffey County 50-21.

Five seniors took the floor for the Wildcats to start the game with four of them scoring in the game. Eric Zajak had four, Keagan Tadlock put in an early Trey and Micol Dixon and Blake Cuppy each added a bucket. Others scoring for the Wildcats were Marcus Cummings with eight, Gavin Busted and Ben Cook each with seven points, Evan McVey with five and Jake Smoot added a free throw.

The team was led by the sixth senior Jarrett Birk who was busy at the basket with 11 points. Coach Huffman remarked, “It was an easy night to be excited, as The gym was full for the homecoming celebration. Our boys brought the energy early and kept it through the end. Every player on the roster logged some minutes tonight, it was a good team win. Hopefully this can be turned into some momentum carrying us forward. We have three games left before the postseason begins. Hopefully our best basketball is ahead of us.”
