rings about ½” thick. Heat a large cast iron skillet on medium-high heat. Drizzle about 1 Tablespoon of oil on pan then lay onion slices on the hot pan. Season onions with salt and pepper. Cook the first side of the onions for about 2-4 minutes or until the onions are caramelized. Gently turn the onions, trying to keep the onion rings all intact. Season the remaining side with salt and pepper and cook other side until caramelized. Gently remove the cooked onion slices from the pan, still trying to keep the rings intact, and set aside. In the same pan, lay the ground beef balls on the hot pan and press the meat with a spatula to smash and form the patties. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Cook the patties for about 2-3 minutes on each side or until it's nearly cooked to your liking. Add cheese on top of each patty and let the cheese melt. Remove from heat. Using the onion slices as the “bun”, lay 1-2 patties on top of each onion slice. Add the burger sauce. Top with remaining slice of onion. Eat right away and enjoy!
