Honest Workers

Proverbs 11:1 "A false balance is abomination to the LORD: but a just weight is his delight."

Honesty is something greatly lacking in our day, even among those that claim the name of Christ. The lack of honesty is one of the reasons people of the world do not want anything to do with Christianity, people say they are followers of Christ but are just as dishonest as lost people. The word honest means upright; just; fair in dealing with others; free from trickiness and fraud; acting and having the disposition to act at all times according to justice or correct moral principles; applied to persons. Being honest is to do what is right even when no one is looking or even when no one else will find out. The Apostle Paul commended the Saints at Philippi for how they worked more in Paul's absence than when he was with them. Philippians 2:12 "Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling." Believers in Christ should have the same servant's spirit that Jesus had, willing to serve others, lay your life down for others, and putting others first. Christians should be the most honest people on a job site, we should not waste time, resources, or be dishonest in our dealings. We should be on time, led by a Godly example, and be dressed appropriately for the job for which one was hired. In the home, parents should be truthful to their children, they should not lie or mislead kids for their own personal security or enjoyment. 2 Corinthians 8:21 "Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men." The Apostle Peter also told believers to be honest in their conversation even when people speak against you so that they might come to glorify God someday. 1 Peter 2:12 "Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation." Every day we have the ability to choose right from wrong, to choose to walk with God or follow Satan, or to be honest in life or dishonest as Joshua set before the children of Israel the same choice. Joshua 24:15 "And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD." Daily, whether we acknowledge it or not, we show people who it is we truly serve, and whether or not we are trustful. The true character of a person is not in the amount of weight they can lift, nor how many hours they can work, real character is in the quality of work they do when no one else sees them. Going forward, work as if God is over your shoulder watching the kind of work you do, because He is, and you represent Him. 1 Corinthians 6:20 "For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."
