Unfaithfulness

Proverbs 25:19 "Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint."

The issue of unfaithfulness goes into every aspect of life. The word unfaithful means not observant of promises, vows, allegiance or duty; violating trust or confidence; not performing the proper duty. Those that are unfaithful in their marriage will usually be unfaithful in their service to God, whereas those who are faithful to God are more likely to be faithful to their spouse. Those who are unfaithful at their job, will also be in other areas, like finances, spending too much, or paying their bills. According to God's Word, unfaithfulness is a painful thing, being compared to two very painful experiences for man. Through the years of working a few different jobs, and now pastoring for these last 7 years, I can tell you that unfaithfulness not only affects the person doing it, but it also affects those around them. As an Electrician with helpers and running jobs, it messed up plans you have for the day when you are expecting someone to be there, and they decide they are going to skip work. The same goes with church services, I cannot tell you how many times I have looked out upon the congregation and wondering where a person, couple, or family is. Thinking back to the last service they were there, wondering what was said that could have upset them, only to find out later they just decided they were going to be unfaithful to church. What if God had our faithfulness in hearing our prayers, meeting our needs, or showing up in our times of troubles? That would sure change a lot of Christian's lives! As I write this article I can think of 100's of times I had a message that I knew God wanted a person to hear, that would help them, even change their life, but they never walked through the doors at the church house. When a Man of God labors in the Word, studying, seeking God, and praying over a message only to have people choose to be unfaithful, words cannot begin to express what he feels, but deep hurt comes to mind. I have heard people say, give a position to someone to help make the person become faithful, but that is not the way God intends for it to be. One must be faithful in order to be used of God, not be given a position to get used by God. Can you imagine a husband giving more money to the wife who spends money meant for bills on clothes thinking somehow, she will learn to be faithful, or a wife trusting a husband with all the money for bills after she has caught him wasting it on gambling? Learning to become faithful starts with little steps, one must get victory over small obstacles first. The word faithful means firmly adhering to duty; of true fidelity; loyal; true to allegiance; as a faithful subject. Someone who is having trouble being in church faithful does not need to be put in charge of a Sunday School class, they need to work on slowly reading their Bible daily, praying daily, and putting aside whatever excuses they are using to miss church and give their lives fully to Jesus first. If you need help becoming faithful, get someone you can trust, who will pray for you, encourage you, and be a good example to you in the Lord, and follow their lead. Small steps get you where you need to be, but first determine where you are going, and what it will take to get there, by following God.
