Where did you attend college and what degrees have you earned?
Neosho County Community College, Associate's Degree; Pittsburg State University, Bachelor's Degree of Science in Education Social Studies; Emporia State University, Master's Degree in Building Leadership
How many years have you been working in education? Twenty years
What is the biggest challenge you face in your job? The biggest challenge that I face in my job is finding a way to facilitate all of the great ideas that my staff and students have.
What do you enjoy most about your job? I enjoy serving others and seeing them succeed.
What do you enjoy doing when you aren't at school? I enjoy working on old cars, painting and pinstriping on cars and watching old movies when I'm not at school.
Can you tell us a little about your home life? I am married to my sweetheart from Neosho County Community College, Jennifer Han (Fleming). We have two sons, Jackson and Jacob who both attend Erie, USD 101. We have lived in Galesburg for the past 16 years. We attend Galesburg Christian Church. I am a member of the Galesburg City Council.

Chanute Schools

Name: Madison Robertson
What is your role at the school? I am a School Resource Officer in the middle and elementary schools.
Where did you attend college and what degrees have you earned? I attended and received my associate's degree at Neosho County Community College. I then went onto Washburn University where I received my Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice with an emphasis in Law Enforcement.
How many years have you been working in education? I have been working in education for one year.
What is the biggest challenge you face in your job? Knowing how to work with kids rather than working with adults can be a challenge. I would say I'm catching on pretty easily though!
What do you enjoy most about your job? I enjoy getting to build positive relationships with the students.
What do you enjoy doing when you aren't at school? I enjoy traveling, eating, reading, shopping and spending time with my friends and family.
Can you tell us a little about your home life? I am married to Ryan and we have one furry son, Sooner. We hope to have kids in the future!

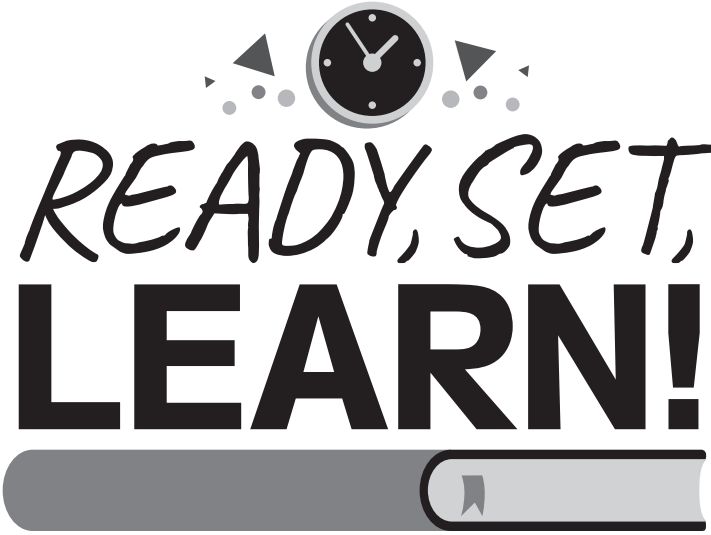

Erie Schools

Name: Angie Wagner
What is your role at the school? Elementary Interventionist and Instructional Coach
Where did you attend college and what degrees have you earned? Bachelor's and master's degrees from Pittsburg State University
How many years have you been working in education? Thirty-four years.
What is the biggest challenge you face in your job? It is sometimes a challenge to meet the needs of the whole child, including academics and their social-emotional well-being.
What do you enjoy most about your job? Every day is a fresh start for each student and staff member. Also, the relationships created last a long time. It warms my heart to see current and former students in the community and receive high fives, hugs, warm smiles and hear fond memories.
What do you enjoy doing when you aren't at school? I love to travel, read and work in my flowerbeds. Time spent with my grandson and kids is always a pleasure.
Can you tell us a little about your home life? My husband, Casey, and I have three children, Colby, Brady and Cassidy, who are grown and successful in their careers. We have an almost 4-year-old grandson, Bennett, who has his Gigi and Poppy's hearts!

Erie Schools

Name: Meleia Burnett
What grade are you teaching this year? Fourth grade.
Where did you attend college and what degrees have you earned? I have my Bachelor's in Elementary Education through Fort Hays State University.
How many years have you been working in education? This is my 12th year in education.
What is the biggest challenge you face in your job? The biggest challenge I face in my job is leaving my job at work. I love my students. I worry about them and celebrate with them. It's very difficult to go home and turn off my "teacher" brain which is constantly thinking about my students; whether or not they're learning, being loved, eating, sleeping, resting, being kind, etc.
What do you enjoy most about your job? I love when my students GET something they didn't previously understand, and those lightbulbs flicker on inside their heads! I also love my coworkers! They truly are the best of the best! Reading aloud to my students is one of my most favorite times of the day. Veterans Day is one of my most favorite days of the year.
What do you enjoy doing when you aren't at school? I LOVE to be with my family. I also really like to read!
Can you tell us a little about your home life? My husband and I have been married for over 26 years. He's the most incredible man on the planet. I have a daughter who is a junior at MidAmerica Nazarene University and a son who is a junior at Erie High School. We have one cat named Olivia!
