Krazy Quilters Quilt Guild Holds Meeting

ORGANIZATION REPORT

The Krazy Quilters Quilt Guild was invited to the Koehler farm for their monthly meeting on May 2.

Following the meeting the group also celebrated Mother's Day early with a brunch. A few of the members donned their party hats for the event in celebration of Mother's Day and in recognition of the Kentucky Derby.

Twelve members were present; Dana Koehler, the hostess and president of the group, LeAnn Hodson, Mary Lou Misak, Sherry Rishell, Twila Strong, Connie Troyer, Marla Wedman, Dollie Mathes, Carol Barlow, Jean Lyman, Donna Deplazes and Pauletta Hinkle.

After a short meeting that included discussion on the upcoming Fair Block Challenge, a show and tell of finished and in the works items and encouraging words, the group adjourned to enjoy the yummy dishes that the members brought to share. Everyone left full of food and visions of future projects.

FAIR

Shop in Harper.

The special kit includes a focus fabric and three blenders, giving you the perfect palette for your 12-and-one-half inch by 12-and-one-half inch block. Choose your own pattern and design — let your creativity lead the way. Your block can be entered between 3 and 8 p.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 12 at the Blue Fair Barn and displayed during the fair.

Last year, thanks to the enthusiasm of Quilt Guild members, they created enough blocks for two quilts. This year, the Quilt Guild is excited to showcase another beautiful Sunflower fabric quilt, assembled from everyone's contributions.

Visit the Blue Fair Barn during the fair to see the quilt and participate in the silent auction, which supports the renovation of the fairgrounds.

Welch Receives Scholarship from Wheatland Electric

PRESS RELEASE

Wheatland Electric Cooperative, Inc. (WEC) is proud to announce that Zachary Welch, a senior at Chaparral High School, was awarded a $1,000 scholarship Wednesday, April 22 at WEC's annual meeting in Great Bend. Each year, WEC awards a $1,000 scholarship to one high school senior from each of the 13 high schools in WEC's service territory, as well as one at-large scholarship for a student who does not attend one of these schools but has a parent or guardian that is a WEC member.

A panel of the WEC Board of Trustees reviewed and selected all the scholarship recipients.

"Wheatland Electric is committed to the leaders of tomorrow and is proud to award these scholarships to assist students in obtaining their educational goals," said CEO/General Manager Bruce W. Mueller.
